Executive Proclamation
State of South Dakota
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Landscape architects have long used their design skills and aesthetic sense to shape the world around us into a more beautiful place; and,

Whereas, Landscape architects face major challenges in planning the communities, public spaces, and infrastructure that will support our housing, commercial, and transportation needs; and,

Whereas, Landscape architects teach people to be wise stewards of the environment; and,

Whereas, Our state continues to rely on the skills of landscape architects to create, protect, and preserve our national parks, local school yards, and commercial streetscapes; and,

Whereas, National Landscape Architecture Week is April 19 - 27, 2003:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim April 19-27, 2003, as in South Dakota.

LANDSCAPE ARCHITECTURE WEEK

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-sixth Day of March in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Three.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
